

A New, Flexible Library Card Option for Kids and Teens

The library is introducing the "Take 2" card, a new card option for children and teens ages 17 and younger.

The card can be used to borrow up to two items at a time- books, magazines, and comic books only. The card also allows the use of library computers and any of the library's electronic resources.

No overdue fines will be charged on the Take 2 card, but there will be a charge for items not returned. No parental signature is required for the Take 2 card.
